CHAPTER HOUSE PHI KAPPA SIGMA FRATERNITY, UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA. When completed on January 1, 1911, it will be the largest and most attractive fraternity house at Virginia. The plans provide for a large hall at entrance, which can be used as a living room, a billiard room, study and twelve bedrooms. There is also provided in the basement plan a meeting room for the fraternity gatherings. The cost of the building, complete with grounds, will be $18,500. Phi Kappa Sigma enjoys the distinction of being the first college fraternity to enter the University of Virginia.

CAN'T BAR LEPER'S CHILDREN

They Must Be Admitted to Public Schools Under Sanitation. Lansing, Mich., September 17.—That the four daughters of John Jensen, a leper isolated at Calumet, Mich., cannot be excluded from the public schools is the conclusion of Attorney-General Kuhn.

It is his opinion he states that thorough examination has revealed no trace of the disease in the daughters, and that they will not be a menace in the schools if they are disinfected, removed from their father and mother, and kept away from them during the school term, and if a monthly or bi-monthly examination continues to show that they are free from the malady.

DEBATE AT STATESVILLE.

Democratic and Republican Nominees Engage in Spirited Contests. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Salisbury, N. C., September 17.—Representative Charles H. Cowles, the Republican Congressman from the Eighth District, and the Democratic nominee for the same office, R. L. Doughton, of Alleghany county, locked horns in Salisbury to-day in a joint debate, which was heard by a great crowd of voters from various adjoining counties. Mr. Cowles spoke first, declaring that his party stood for economy and clean government. Mr. Doughton followed with a stirring speech in which he exploded many of the fallacies of the present administration. While both sides claim to have won favor in the debate, the majority in both parties admit that Doughton got the best of his opponent.

The case against L. A. Jackson, white, charged with shooting William Finnegan, was continued in Police Court yesterday morning to the latter part of this week. Finnegan, who was shot in the legs, is now at the Retreat for the Sick. He will recover, and will probably be able to appear when the case is next called.

Charles Plank a Suicide.

Reading, Pa., September 17.—Charles M. Plank, a leading lawyer of this city, was found dead in the bath room of his home this afternoon with gas flowing from an open jet. He was fifty years old. His health is believed to have led him to take his life. He was formerly Republican county chairman.

SLAYS IN MERCY; ANERVOUS WRECK

Prospector McDowell Kills Wife to Relieve Her of Sufferings.

WAS FATALLY HURT

Sorrowing Husband, Haunted by Deed, Is in New York for Treatment.

New York, September 17.—Haunted by the memory of his wife, whose sufferings he mercifully ended by sending a bullet through her head in the wilds of the Canadian Northwest, miles from help, James McDowell, a prospector and miner, is at the home of friends at 2774 Bainbridge Avenue, the Bronx, a nervous and physical wreck. He has been under treatment, but he is growing worse. He says of himself: "How long I can stand it I don't know."

McDowell granted the plea of his mortally injured wife to end her agony. He was exonerated by a jury of his fellow men. The remembrance of that awful experience has shattered his nerves until he is now hardly more than the wreck of a man. McDowell is fifty-eight years old, six feet tall and a gaunt reminder of what was once a physically perfect man. The thought that he killed his wife, despite the fact that that was the only course open to him, is with him constantly, and his sunken eyes tell of the wearisome days and sleepless nights. He is averse to talking of the experience, but last night he consented to tell his story.

Married Girl of Twenty-two Years. "My wife was Fanny Crawford, a native of Alberta, Province," he said. "Her father was John Crawford, who had been a miner, a prospector, in California and Canada for years. He and I had been close friends, and are yet, Fanny was only twenty-two when we were married. I had a rich claim near Castle Mountain, which is in the British Columbia extension of the Cascade range, and soon after we were married I decided to visit it. I had been there some time before and had cut a rough trail to the claim. "Fanny begged me to take her with me. I demurred, as it was no place for a woman; but she persisted, and I finally consented. We visited friends in Calgary for a few days, while I was purchasing supplies, and then started for the mine, a five-day journey by mules. We had three mules—one for my wife, one for myself, and the third for a pack animal, carrying provisions and tools for building a cabin, as I intended to do some work on the claim. "The trails on Castle Mountain are very narrow and steep, so much so that it is very difficult for even a mule to pass over them. One day we were going along one of these trails. My wife was some yards ahead of me, and I was lounging in the saddle, half asleep. It was about 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and we had been riding three hours.

"Suddenly my wife's mule brayed as if in pain, and I looked up to see him rearing on the very edge of the precipice. I have always thought he was stung by a hornet. I tried to reach my wife's side, but before I could do so the mule plunged over the precipice, carrying Fanny with him.

Heard Wife's Body Crash. "I threw myself to the ground and peered over the edge. I could hear the mule's body crashing through the trees and among the rocks to the bottom, fully 2,000 feet. I nearly pitched over myself.

"It was almost twenty-four hours later before I found the carcass of the mule. I had eaten nothing for almost thirty hours and was nearly insane from grief, hunger and thirst. My clothing and flesh were torn by the rocks over which I had crawled, my skin was almost blistered by the heat, and my eyes smarted so that I could hardly see.

"I left the dead mule and crawled on. Fifty yards away I found a sheepless mass lying among the rocks. It was my wife, alive, but mercifully unconscious. I think every bone in her body must have been broken. There was a great gash in her forehead, but she was breathing faintly.

"I mixed some brandy with water from my canteen and forced it down her throat. When she revived a few minutes later her suffering was intense. She begged me to shoot her, and end the agony.

"There was not a human being within a hundred miles, so far as I know. The nearest medical help was at Calgary, 120 miles away. It would have taken me ten days at least to go and return, and wolves would have devoured her before I had been gone one day.

"There was nothing else to do. I placed the muzzle of my revolver against her head and fired. Then I faintly. When I recovered consciousness, hours later, I covered her body with rocks, grass and boughs to keep away the wolves. Then I started for Calgary.

"I was in such condition that I was ten days making the trip. When I arrived I hunted up Sheriff Hamilton and told him my story. He sent two deputies with me to the spot and they found things just as I had said. We buried my wife and returned to Calgary. An inquest was held and I was exonerated. Shortly after that I had a sunstroke, and after my senses returned, but my nerves gave away and I am here now for treatment."

ALBERTA NOTES.

The New Town Is Coming Along Apace. Many Industries in Contemplation.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alberta, Va., September 17.—The song of the hammer and the saw is being heard in the new town of Alberta as it was never heard before. Charles H. Barrow, the originator and the real owner of the town, has a large force of men at work preparing timbers for building purposes. Mr. Barrow has met a number of prospectors here this week and has disposed of more lots to be built upon at an early date. Foundations will soon be dug for a big wood-working establishment, and other industries are sure to be started early. The new storehouse of the Johnson & Son is rapidly nearing completion.

Glass May Oppose Swanson for Senate

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Roanoke, Va., September 17.—When asked over the telephone this evening in regard to the rumor that he will be a candidate to oppose United States Senator Claude A. Swanson next year, Representative Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, Congressman from the Sixth District, answered that possibly he would be a candidate, but that he would not make such an announcement until after the November elections.

Silence!

The instinct of modesty natural to every woman is often a great hindrance to the cure of womanly diseases. Women shrink from the personal questions of the local physician which seem indelicate. The thought of examination is abhorrent to them, and so they endure in silence a condition of disease which surely progresses from bad to worse.

It has been Dr. Pierce's privilege to cure a great many women who have found a refuge for modesty in his offer of FREE consultation by letter. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores and regulates the womanly functions, abolishes pain and builds up and puts the finishing touch of health on every weak woman who gives it a fair trial.

It Makes Weak Women Strong, Sick Women Well.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition.

Best Medicine for the Old

Mr. A. H. Jordan, the oldest man living who was born in Cuba, N. Y. He is wearing the hat he wore when married, 57 years ago.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

If you wish to keep young, strong and vigorous and enjoy perfect health take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly according to directions. It tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous. Prescribed by doctors and recognized as a family remedy everywhere.

If in need of advice, write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, New York, stating your case fully. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a valuable illustrated medical booklet containing rare common sense rules for health which you cannot afford to be without and some of the many thousands of gratifying letters from men and women in all walks of life, both old and young who have been cured and benefited by the use of this great medicine and who continue to enjoy good health. It is sold IN SEALED BOTTLES ONLY by druggists, grocers and dealers everywhere or shipped direct for $1.00 per large bottle.

Mr. A. H. Jordan of Cuba, N. Y., has lived a strenuous life, but he is strong, vigorous and active at 84 Years of Age.

He praises Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which he uses regularly, as the great medicine for keeping the old young in health and spirits and thinks there is no better medicine. He writes:

"I use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, and think there is no better medicine for old people in their declining age. A few months ago there was published a little history of my early life as the oldest man now living in the town of Cuba, N. Y. I have lived a strenuous life, in earlier days following the river on lumber to Pittsburg and Cincinnati and hunting all over the northern part of Pennsylvania." A. H. Jordan, Cuba, N. Y.

Ministers of the gospel, doctors of medicine, nurses and people everywhere unite in commending Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey—the only perfect tonic stimulant, the one true medicinal whiskey. It has to its credit fifty years of success, and its merit has never been questioned. This is a recommendation in itself.

News of South Richmond

South Richmond Bureau, The Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hull Street.

While general approval is expressed at the committee assignments given to the delegation from Washington

Ward by the presidents of the two branches of the Council, there is special gratification on this side of the river over the chairmanship which has fallen to South Richmond, Councilman R. A. Gill having been elected to head the Committee on Local Assessments, which has to do with the assessment of abutting property owners where sidewalks and alleys are paved.

South Richmond is well represented on all the important committees. On the Street Committee, which will in the near future have large work to undertake on this side of the river, Alderman John W. Moore and Councilman Carter C. Jones were named. Only a few wards have two representatives on the Finance Committee. South Richmond securing appointment of Alderman J. R. Perdue and Councilman W. B. Bradley. Mr. Workman represents the ward on the Light Committee; Mr. Gill on Water; Mr.

Jones on Electricity; Mr. Patram and Mr. Workman on Relief of the Poor; Mr. Patram and Mr. Brown on Street Cleaning; Mr. Brown on Grounds and Buildings, and Messrs. Moore and Brown on Ordinance, Charter and Reform.

System of Local Assessments.

The old city of Manchester had never introduced the system in vogue in Richmond of having sidewalks and alleys paved at the expense of abutting property owners, instead of out of the general fund, and when the annexation ordinance was under discussion it was attempted to have this ward exempted from the provisions of that act, but the attorneys for both cities ruled that could not legally be done. With a South Richmond man at the head of the committee, however, the system will be introduced gradually, and with every safeguard thrown about the interests of South Richmond property owners. There is said to be a growing sentiment in Richmond for the abolition of the system of local assessments and having all such work done from the general fund, as was the custom in Manchester. The system is said to be more expensive in operation than the results justify.

In the Churches.

Quiet hour services were held at Asbury Methodist Church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Evangelist George H. Wiley. Mr. Wiley will speak twice to-day. A young people's service will be held at 8:30 A. M. and at 3:30 P. M. The Methodist Church of South Richmond will unite in a special service at Asbury Church.

At Central Methodist Church regular services will be held by the pastor, Rev. H. C. Pfeiffer, at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

At Oak Grove Baptist Church, Rev. S. C. Croxton will preach morning and night.

At Bainbridge Street Baptist Church, Rev. James W. Durham will occupy the pulpit morning and night.

At Clifton Street Baptist Church, Rev. J. C. Miles will preach at both services.

At Porter Street Presbyterian Church the services will be conducted by Rev. J. J. Flax.

Dies in Texas.

Carter Sidney Turpin, son of the late Dr. Thomas Jefferson Turpin, of Powhatan county, died Friday after an extended illness in El Paso, Tex. He formerly lived in South Richmond, and went to Texas some time since on account of his health. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been learned here. He is survived by three sisters—Mrs. W. G. Hartwell, of Newport News; Mrs. E. C. Wilkinson, of Amelia county, and Miss Sallie E. Turpin, of South Richmond, and by three brothers—Thomas J. Turpin, Jr., Emmett Turpin, and Royall Turpin, all of South Richmond. He was a nephew of Augustine Royall, of South Richmond.

Post-Office Completed.

The South Richmond post-office building has been completed to the satisfaction of the government. Inspector F. A. Miller made a tour of the building yesterday morning, testing the electrical wiring, with satisfactory results, and on his report it is expected that the final payment will be forwarded to Barnes Brothers, of Greenville, Ill., the contractors for the building.

With the Injured. Mrs. E. B. Howle, who fell from a Hull Street car several days ago, receiving severe bruises, continues in a serious condition at her home. She is reported to be suffering from internal injuries.

Walter Toney, whose legs were cut off by a train at Fredericksburg a few days ago, is in the Mary Washington Hospital in that city. His condition is reported to be satisfactory, though it will be some time before he can be moved to his home here.

John Moore Honored. The Manchester Lodge of Elks has elected John W. Moore as exalted ruler.

the vote having been unanimous. At special meeting will be held on Thursday night for the installation exercises, in Police Court.

Henry Brown was fined $10 and costs in Magistrate Cheatham's court, in Chesterfield county, for being disorderly on a Forest Hill street car.

A. H. Simmons, white, and Jo Brooks, colored, were fined $1 each in the Police Court yesterday for allowing cows to run at large in the streets.

Magistrate Cheatham sent Ernest Kearney, colored, charged with breaking into the store of C. B. Swallow, at Centalla, on to the Chesterfield county grand jury.

Personal Mention.

W. I. Bryce and W. H. Horner are visiting friends in New York. E. L. Davis left yesterday afternoon on his yacht Ruth for a trip down the James River. He expected to make several stops and to run as far as Brandon. With him were Arthur Garrett, Horace Carr, Curtis Andrews and J. B. Peters.

Mrs. Robert Toney, of 10 East Eleventh Street, who has been ill for several days, is out again.
